

The Office of Economic Development and Innovation is here to help you relocate or expand your business in the City of Raleigh. When you are ready to search available properties, discuss incentives or connect to our business community just contact one of our team members.

Whether you're a site selector or a business manager we're your first point of contact. We'll make it easy to find what you need and we'll treat all corporate relocation inquiries as confidential.