

Raleigh ED&I and Wake County Economic Development exhibited at Internet Summit in November to promote Raleigh and Wake County as a premier hub for tech business and talent. The event attracts top tech talent and provides attendees with learning opportunities focused on digital marketing and analytics as well as valuable industry connections.