

On March 25 the City of Raleigh launched the Passport Parking App after a successful pilot on Hillsborough Street. The new parking app gives drivers a more convenient way to pay for their parking and an easier option to keep track of their parking... Everything can be managed from a user's cell phone while helping to avoid parking citations. Credit cards and coins will still be accepted at the pay stations.