

This map is to help build connections in Raleigh’s growing startup community. Raleigh has transformed over the last few years into a city that fosters innovation, collaboration, and entrepreneurship and we have set out to showcase that transformation using this map. From Technology and Life Sciences, to Design and Consumer Products, Raleigh is expanding quickly across a wide variety of sectors.

Whether you want to explore an industry as a whole, find a specific company, or join the team of one of our growing startups, this map is for you.

Want to know where to start? Here’s a few ways you can use this map:

- Add your company. This map is designed to showcase our product-based startups and growth companies. Don’t see your company currently listed? Keep our map fresh and submit your information.
- Find a job. Love to collaborate and create? We’re always looking for people to join our innovation community. Use this map to see which of our emerging companies are currently hiring.
- Explore your surroundings. Discover everything your neighbors and community have to offer.

Open map in new window